

Dinner and a Math Problem

GRAND ISLAND - SPRING 2011

.....
The Dinner and a Math Problem events will bring together math teachers (especially of grades 6-12) and mathematicians with the goal to discover and pass along to students the excitement and richness of problem solving in deep yet accessible mathematics topics.

WHEN: Tuesday, March 22

Dinner: 5:30 P.M.

Presentation: 6:00 - 7:00

“The Jug Problem”

Presenters: Anne Schmidt & Delise Andrews

WHERE: Grand Island Senior High, Cafeteria

RSVP: Sue Graupner (sgraupn@lps.org) by March 15

.....
Questions? Contact:

Sue Graupner_ 402-436-1828_ sgraupn@lps.org

Jerel Welker_ 402-436-1306 ext 66251_ jwelker@lps.org

Karey Killion_ kkillion@gips.org

Catered dinner to be provided and sponsored in part by the UNL Center for Science, Mathematics & Computer Education