

The Dinner and a Math Problem events will bring together math teachers (especially of grades 6-12) and mathematicians with the goal to discover and pass along to students the excitement and richness of problem solving in deep yet accessible mathematics topics.

Dinner and a Math Problem

Norfolk

Fall 2011

Date:	Wednesday, November 9
Dinner:	6:30 – 7 p.m.
Presentation:	7 – 8 p.m.
	“Pennies and Statistics as seen through Graphing Calculators”
	What do pennies, statistics and graphing calculators have in common? Come enjoy an evening of food, fun and mathematics with a little technology thrown in.
	Presenter: Stacey Aldag
Where:	Northeast Community College, Science Bldg
RSVP:	Stacey Aldag, stacey@northeast.edu , by Nov. 7
Questions?	Contact: Stacey Aldag, stacey@northeast.edu

NebraskaMATH

Catered dinner to be provided and sponsored in part by the UNL Center for Science, Mathematics & Computer Education